South Benton News

BY LAVADA SIRESS

Nothing tends more to promote good health of body and of soul than a spirit of gratitude and praise.

It is a positive duty to resist discontented thoughts and feelings just as it is a duty to pray. If we are heaven-bound, how can we go as a band of mourners, complaining all the way to Our Father's House.

It is becoming increasingly apparent each day that the mortgage is about to be closed on man's earthly home. The great Landlord is becoming tired of the way His tenants are handling the property.

But the Landlord is just. He has given His tenants advance notice of His intentions so that all can be prepared for His coming.

He also has developed a relocation plan which will provide more stately mansions for all who want them. Here is what He says about the relocation plan:

"And I, John, saw the Holy City of New Jerusalem coming down from God out of Heaven prepared as a bride adorned for her husband hearing the glory of God. And her light was like a stone most precious; even like a Jasper stone clear as crystal.

"And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it, and the lamb is the light thereof. And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it, and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honor into it.

And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day, for there shall be no night there. And they shall bring the glory and honor of the nations into it. And there shall in no wise enter into it anything that defileth neither whatsoever worketh abomination or maketh a lie but they which are written in the lamb's Book of Life.

And He showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out from the throne of God and of the lamb.

In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life which bear 12 manner of fruits and yielded her fruit every month; and the yielding of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

And there shall be no more curse. But the throne of God and of the lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve Him. And they shall be His people, and His name shall be upon their foreheads.

And He said unto sayings are faithful. And the Lord God said unto His servant who must be done. And He said quickly and my name—to give every man as his work shall be. From the Book of Revelation.

WATERSHED

Questions and Answers

By WAYNE M. WILLIAMS

Division of Soil and Water Resources
By WAYNE M. WILLIAMS
Division of Soil and Water Resources

Question No. 1. What is a watershed?

Answer: A watershed is an area of land that drains all of its water into a given stream. Watersheds vary in size from the Mississippi River that drains a large portion of the continent of the United States to a small field on an individual farm. Watersheds under P L556 cannot exceed 250,000 acres in drainage area.

Question No. 2. What exemptions of property are there in a Watershed?

Answer: Incorporated towns and unincorporated villages. In East and West Fork of Clarks River all tracts of land less than two acres are exempt.

Question No. 3. What is it going to cost me?

Answer: Section 13 of the Act states, "Within the first quarter of each calendar year, the board of directors shall prepare an itemized budget of the funds needed for administration, construction, operation and maintenance of works of improvement. After approval of such budget by the joint boards of SCD supervisors, the board of directors shall, by order or resolution, levy a tax sufficient to meet such budget, not to exceed five mills per dollar for the fair cash value (50 cents per $100) as equalized by the Department of Revenue, of all real property within the district, except any levy necessary to provide a sinking fund for retirement of bonds authorized by Section 11 of this Act. A copy of such budget and order or resolution shall be certified to the county clerk of the county or counties involved."

Question No. 4. Will the dredging work proposed by the Corps of Engineers on the main stem cost the farmer anything?

Answer: The Corps has not yet completed its studies and investigations. When this study has been completed their findings and recommendations will be presented to the people concerned for their consideration and acceptance or rejection. If a local contribution is required, definite arrangements will have to be made by the local sponsoring organizations to meet this requirement. In any event, the local sponsors will be required to perform necessary maintenance and provide appropriate easements and right-of-ways.

Question No. 5. Where a landowner donates easements and right-of-ways for flood water retarding structures, what rights does he possess?

Answer: This will depend entirely upon the type of easement conveyed to the local sponsoring organizations. If the easement conveys only the right for the local sponsors to survey, install, operate and maintain the structure, plus egress and ingress, then the landowner granting the easement would have the same right that he previously had. The Federal Government is concerned only with the functioning of the structure with respect to flood prevention. Fishing, hunting, and the use of the water in the reservoir is of no concern to the Federal Government, except as it might relate to flood prevention. The farmer's right to the use of the water impounded therein is the same as it would have been had the structure not been installed.

JAYCEE SHELTER project, part of the organization's nationwide "Operation Survival," takes across the nation. Each of the 3,000 Jaycee chapters in the United States is being encouraged to participate in the program to stir public interest in fallout shelter construction in every community. This is one of a variety of permanent or temporary display shelters built by Jaycees in cooperation with civil defense in communities across the nation. (Fairmont, Minn., Sentinel Photo)

FARMING AROUND

By Mark Welsh

Know why huge flocks of ducks, turkeys and chickens are found only on the farms of this country?

Well, it all started back 15 years ago when sulfaguanidine was developed. This was the first cheap chemical flock treatment that was effective on coccidiosis, the big killer and crippler of that day. This new sulfa drug took a lot of the risk out of broiler and chicken production and flocks rapidly grew larger and more profitable. Soon new vaccines, drugs and antibiotics were preventing or successfully treating virtually every poultry disease; diets were improved; better birds were bred and poultry suddenly changed from a Sunday and holiday treat to a part of our daily food.

Poultrymen came from all over the world to study our methods and marvel at the thousands of healthy, happy birds kept under one roof. Some went home and tried our methods and even imported our vaccines, drugs and antibiotics like Aureomycin.

(Editors Note: Dr. Mark Welsh is a former university instructor and state livestock sanitary service director who has spent a lifetime in agriculture. He now is agricultural consultant to American Cyanamid Company.)

until they could get local supplies and are doing very well for themselves. Australia, Israel, Denmark, Brazil and many others are making a start.

We taught them the game—wonder if we can beat them at it?

The big butter and egg man is no myth. Last year farm chickens and eggs brought $1,773,151,000, according to reports of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The income from broilers was $932,402,000 and turkeys brought $332,912,000. The poultry and egg man's total was $3,098,165,000, and it takes a queer sense of humor to make funny cracks about serious money like that.

The Great Promise

For December 11, 1961

FORGIVENESS happens in a moment. It is a gift from God. Human beings are sometimes surprised by it. It is a gift that we need not be. The Bible says that we are forgiven of our sins. It is a gift that we need not be. The Bible says that we are forgiven of our sins.

The trouble was, nobody asked for just a kind of answer to their long prayers—long in the sense that for years the people were praying for a deliverer who would save them from the Babylonians.

Dr. Foreman, this Deliverer was promised, for many centuries, had pointed forward to the coming of One to whom the name was given—Son of David, anointed, God's Servant, and so on. One of the names was not a name, it was a title. The great hope of the world was that this Deliverer would come. He that is coming (all in Greek or Hebrew).

Justice

The problem at this point in the mind to thinking of a Deliverer really means to think of a Deliverer who would save them from the Babylonians.

For example: In Isaiah 9:1-7, the prophet says that the Deliverer would come. He that is coming (all in Greek or Hebrew).

Home Agent NEWS

BY SUNSHINE COLLEY

This news column should be the first in a series for this year. I seemed to have been so busy, I haven't written one for several weeks (months?).

Congratulations to the Marshall County 4-H Council for receiving the award for the best award for the best report on last year's work in the Purchase District. This is the third year our 4-H Council has been so honored. Last year the award was set that no Council should receive the honor two years straight. Marshall County really has an outstanding 4-H Council. Also in the 4-H work, congratulations to Pat Brown for receiving a trip to 4-H Congress in Chicago. Pat will be home by Dec. 3. We'll all enjoy hearing from his trip.

Just bought some Spring Flowering bulbs. Sure hope to get them in the ground before the ground freezes. Still plenty of time for jonquils, tulips, and crocuses. The farm store also had a few hyacinths. You might want to use this in a bowl to bloom in the house. I plan to use the bulbs around the dogwood trees in my yard. Mr. Miller suggested using a bulb setter to set the bulbs. I will if I can borrow one.

Four-H girls are cooking now. Any 4-H leader who needs help please put it on the card you are to send me after each meeting.

Four-H Clubs will have Christmas safety as part of their December program. All of us need to think about safety during the holiday season.

Mrs. Mary D. Browder, University of Kentucky Family Life Specialist, will conduct a short course in family relations in Marshall County beginning in January. We hope that many couples in the county will plan now to attend the one session of the first meeting. To reach different people who work different hours, we will have two sessions each time. The first meeting is Tuesday, Jan. 3 at 1 p. m. and another session Tuesday night at 7.

Don't forget you might get some ideas for Christmas decorations by visiting the two banks in Benton next Tuesday, Dec. 6. The Benton Town and Country Garden Club will have holiday arrangements—from wreaths for the front door to dining table arrangements. Take time to call a friend you know would enjoy seeing the decorations and bring her along.

BY AMY ADAMS

SIZE TEN SHOE HAS HER SHOOK

Dear Amy: I'm seventeen and much to my dismay, I wear a size 10 shoe. I'm so self-conscious about this that I'm letting it ruin my social life. I am not built out of proportion in any other way but big feet upset me. I know that nothing can be done about them but I was hoping a word of advice would soothe my feelings.

Dear Charlene: Don't fret! It is common knowledge that boys only take notice to a girl from 'the ankles up.' If you don't believe it, ask any boy.

Dear Amy: When school was out last June, my 18-year-old daughter became close friends with the 12-year-old close friend with the 12-year-old street was another girl, who, no matter how many times my daughter asked her to join in their activities, refused, saying she had other plans.

We left for a short summer vacation and upon returning found the two girls close friends. They completely ignored and excluded my daughter from their fun. However, when my daughter's birthday rolled around, the two girls came over with a gift. Since we felt the present lacked a sincere offer of friendship, we refused the gift... politely of course.

Fireworks the next day! Neither of the two families will speak to any of us. This is very awkward and I need your advice. If I owe these families an apology, they will get it. I had felt the two girls' mothers should have observed what had been going on and should have asked the girls to include my daughter rather than to let them ignore her until her birthday and then to be so crushed and offended because we did not want a gift from them under the circumstances.

Mrs. D. C.

Dear Mrs. D. C.: Parents cannot always control their children's actions. Whatever reasons the girls had for excluding your daughter, they finally decided to make amends. The sincerity of the gift should not have been questioned and to refuse it was an insult. Now it's your turn to make amends. Apologize... sincerely!

Dear Amy: Why do women need shoes to match each dress, hats to match every coat and gloves to match every suit? Her Husband

Dear Husband: For the same reason they need an understanding husband to match every mood!

Dear Amy: My childhood friends are 'al ready taking their children to school, so you can see I'm no longer a girl, and this brings me to my problem. I'm getting desperate to hook a man and I'm willing to try anything. I live with my parents and my father is a retired. In order to leave no stone unturned, they are willing to move to another state (whichever one I chose) to help me out.

Amy, can you please tell me which states are known to have the most eligible men?

Janet

Dear Janet: New York, Washington and Alaska!

Dear Amy: I have a very good lady friend who lives near me. She works a few hours in the evening. Her husband is at home when she goes to work. Lately I've noticed a woman going into their house soon after she leaves. My husband says I shouldn't jump to conclusions and maybe I should look the other way. What do you think?

A Neighbor

Dear Neighbor: There are no maybe's about it! I agree with your husband.

PERSONAL TO BURNED UP: Never argue at the dinner table, for the one who is not hungry always gets the best of the argument.
